Join Us Online As We Kick Off Women's History Month Learning with the Libraries

March 3rd at 4pm eastern

Join Kathleen Pate, Education Specialist for the William J. Clinton Presidential Library and Museum for her session:

How RBG Came to Be: The Process of Appointing a Supreme Court Justice

Twenty years before she became known as RBG, Ruth Bader Ginsburg was appointed to the United States Supreme Court by President Clinton. We'll explore the process from selection to swearing in through records held at the Clinton Presidential Library and the National Archives.
